I am an insurance and reinsurance attorney, with a strong background in the arbitration of such disputes. I have been appointed as an arbitrator more than thirty-five times. I teach law school and my academic focus is on arbitrator case management. Combining my interests, I was one of the principal authors of the “ARIAS-US Panel Rules for the Resolution of Insurance and Contract Disputes, a new rule set that went into effect on September 16, 2019. I am a prolific writer, speaker, and commentator.
